

Supervisor Landi called the workshop to order at 7 PM. Present were Supervisor Landi, Councilman Hoffman, and Councilman Queipo. Councilman Nelson and Councilman Wells were absent. Highway Superintendent Ed Moore, Town Historian Linda Queipo Daily Freeman reporter Bill Kemble, Town Attorney Ashley Torre and 2 town residents were also present.

Committee Reports

Councilman Hoffman reported that the dog that was picked up last month is still at the Saugerties Animal shelter.

Councilman Queipo reported that the microphones are in, but they are still waiting for an amplifier. The Town is still waiting for an official start date for the Sheriff to patrol our Town. Councilman Queipo responded to an alarm going off in the Town Hall.

Superintendent of Highways Ed Moore reported that the Highway Department has been working with the Town of Ulster under shared services agreement. They have also been working with the Recreation Department. Hill Road has not flooded despite the heavy rain that we received the other day.

Questions & Comments

A resident asked how to get the zoning changed for the upper Jockey Hill Road area so that her dog grooming business would be allowed to operate at her residence. Town Attorney Torre will work with the Board on suggesting solutions.

Town Historian Linda Queipo read a letter (see attached) informing the Board that she will be resigning the position of Historian effective December 31, 2022.

Councilman Queipo made the motion, seconded by Councilman Hoffman to pay the bills presented at the meeting. All Approved.

Supervisor Landi made the motion, seconded by Councilman Queipo to move for adjournment. All Approved. The meeting was adjourned at 7:20 PM.

Respectfully submitted

Dennis Weiss

Town Clerk
